Our Mission: Safe, dignified employment for adults with disabilities and dedication to the success of our customers.

WORTH Industries is an industrial subcontractor, licensed by the Missouri Department of Elementary and Secondary Education. As one of Missouri's 93 sheltered workshops, our purpose is to provide commercially useful employment for adults with disabilities.

Your business relationship with WORTH Industries supports full productivity & inclusion in our community.

While providing high quality business services at competitive rates and operating the business in a professional and fiscally responsible manner, we also:

- Provide a safe, supportive, and productive environment.
- Encourage each person to achieve his/her highest potential and become as self sufficient as possible.
- Teach and train persons with disabilities to acquire better work habits.
- Enhance self-worth and dignity through employment.

A phone call to WORTH Industries can save you time and money.

Our supervised employees can reduce your personnel and payroll costs. You pay a fixed cost per job order.

Outsourcing saves valuable production and distribution resources. Our workshop, warehouse, and shipping/receiving capabilities reduce the amount of floor space you are required to reserve in your plant for these functions, especially for seasonal work. We help you increase your capacity while saving money.

Using our specialized, equipment can reduce or postpone your capital costs.
